NOTICE TO CYCLISTS

Bike racks should be arriving soon. In the meantime, the City of Tacoma has said that any more bicycles chained to trees will be cut loose and impounded. The Security Office suggests that students use the parking garage to park bikes.

FIRST YEAR S.B.A. REPRESENTATIVE

All first year students interested in running for first year Student Bar Association representative, leave a note for Pat Vlaming or in the S.B.A. box. The election is scheduled for Monday, September 22.

STUDENT SERVICES

Starting this fall, law students will receive an additional service in return for all the money we send Main Campus. Now, law students can attend activities and functions at Main Campus free or at the same discounted price given undergraduate students. This includes the movies, lectures and athletic events. So, no more sneaking into the movies. You can thank Dave Chapman for this one.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The law school student body is currently represented on the U.P.S. Board of Trustees only through the undergraduate student representative, the class president. The Governing Council is trying to change this. The Prolific Reporter will keep you posted on their progress.

LAW CENTER ACTIVITIES

Any organization or individual scheduling events or speakers at the Law Center should notify the S.B.A. secretary, Jan Bolvin, as to date, time and location. There is an events calendar in the S.B.A. office. Coordinating events will prevent scheduling conflicts and will assist S.B.A. personnel with outside inquiries on these events. Each and every student organization is requested to check with the S.B.A. secretary this week so that a master list of the student groups and their officers can be prepared, and all mail properly forwarded.

FACULTY EVALUATION COMMITTEE

This committee needs six or seven new members, preferably first and second year students. Those interested, please leave your name and number in the S.B.A. box.

AMICUS

The law newspaper, the "Amicus," needs an advertising manager immediately. If interested, contact Sherry Harris.

MISCELLANEOUS

- (1) Informed sources report that there is no student representative on the current building committee for the Law Center. And--there apparently aren't any plans to include a student representative.
- (2) The faculty won the annual softball tourney at the Fall Picnic Sunday, but not without the help of a few "ringers."
- (3) For those of you who attended the dedication on Saturday; don't you wish you could go to law school here?

REMEMBER, THERE IS NO SMOKING IN THE STUDENT LOUNGE!
